Join us as Janice Edwards works with adults students to improve their singing skills.

Secure and confident singing is based on energized, sustained breath support. No matter what style of music you prefer, singing in a legato manner will enhance your artistry and performance skills.

Selected adult students will perform pieces they have been working on for constructive feedback. Individuals interested in performing should email their name, piece, composer, and teacher's name to aubrie@mcmusicschool.org.

Janice Edwards has performed internationally in opera, oratorio, and song recital. Her experience in a wide range of repertoire, especially dramatic mezzo-soprano operatic roles, has led to successes in the Czech Republic, Italy, and Denmark as well as throughout the U.S.
